

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2363 - HB 2495

February 8, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends existing Health Facilities Commission statutes regarding non-residential methadone clinics. Establishes requirements for the service area of existing or proposed clinics. The population of the host county and surrounding counties is to be 500,000. If the area does not reach a population of 500,000 then additional counties shall be added to the service area. However, no counties from an existing clinic's service area can be added to the service area. The commission shall have no authority to approve a new clinic within the service area of an existing clinic. The Department of Health is to define service areas by January 1, 2003.
